

5th Annual Flag City Daylily Tour

Unique daylily gardens around Findlay in Northwest Ohio

Self-guided tour of six gardens, each with its own special personality

American Daylily Society (ADS) Ambassador

A. Sharon & Ron DeCooman – Rural farm setting featuring 1400 registered cultivars and many seedlings. Many for sale. Emphasis is on tall daylilies with large blooms from Davisson, Gossard, Bachman, Holmes, and Norris. Also, 350 newer hosta varieties on display. ADS member.

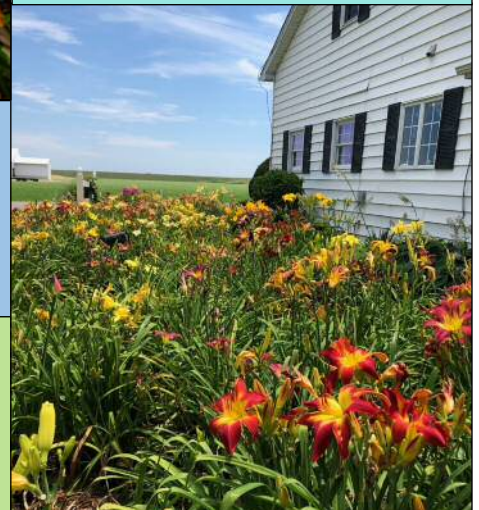

E. Richard & Robin Hopkins -- Over 300 registered daylilies in several beds as a "beginner collection" located in a historic south-end neighborhood. An assortment of hostas as well as various perennials and annuals surround the Victorian house and original carriage house which were built in 1874. Water features and garden art blend with the numerous plants. ADS member.

Fri, July 10 10 - 6
Sat, July 11 10 - 6
Sun, July 12 12 - 6

FREE event

B. Mike & Denise Anders – Approximately 2400 registered cultivars and seedlings on a half-acre city lot. Mostly large-flowering classic forms. Significant historical collection of cultivars by Moldovan, Woodhall, and Valente, and a substantial number of non-registered seedlings by Steve Moldovan and Mark Carpenter. Features a wide array of classic garden art. ADS member.

Like us on Facebook:
Flag City Daylily Tour

For more information:
anders@findlay.edu or 419-889-8827
www.pplantpeddler.com

D. Linda & David Spahr – Classic country garden surrounding a white farm house at a bend in the road. 800+ daylilies (old and new) mixed with hostas, perennials, and annuals. Many double daylily cultivars, as well as numerous tall and late bloomers. ADS member.

F. McClelland's Daylilies (Keith & Becky McClelland) - Over 500 cultivars, older and newer, planted in raised beds creating the visual impact of a sea of color across a one-acre garden that includes about 150 hostas. Emphasis on extra large spiders and doubles, very early through very late bloomers, many for sale. ADS member.

Public restroom.

C. Perennial Plant Peddler (Ann, George & Michelle Brickner) – Over 1000 registered cultivars plus seedlings in ADS Display Garden, 750 for sale. All sizes, shapes, and forms including collections of unusual sculpted & bearded forms. Many newly registered cultivars. Extensive display gardens also include 200 hostas and well over 1000 other perennials. ADS member.

Public restroom.

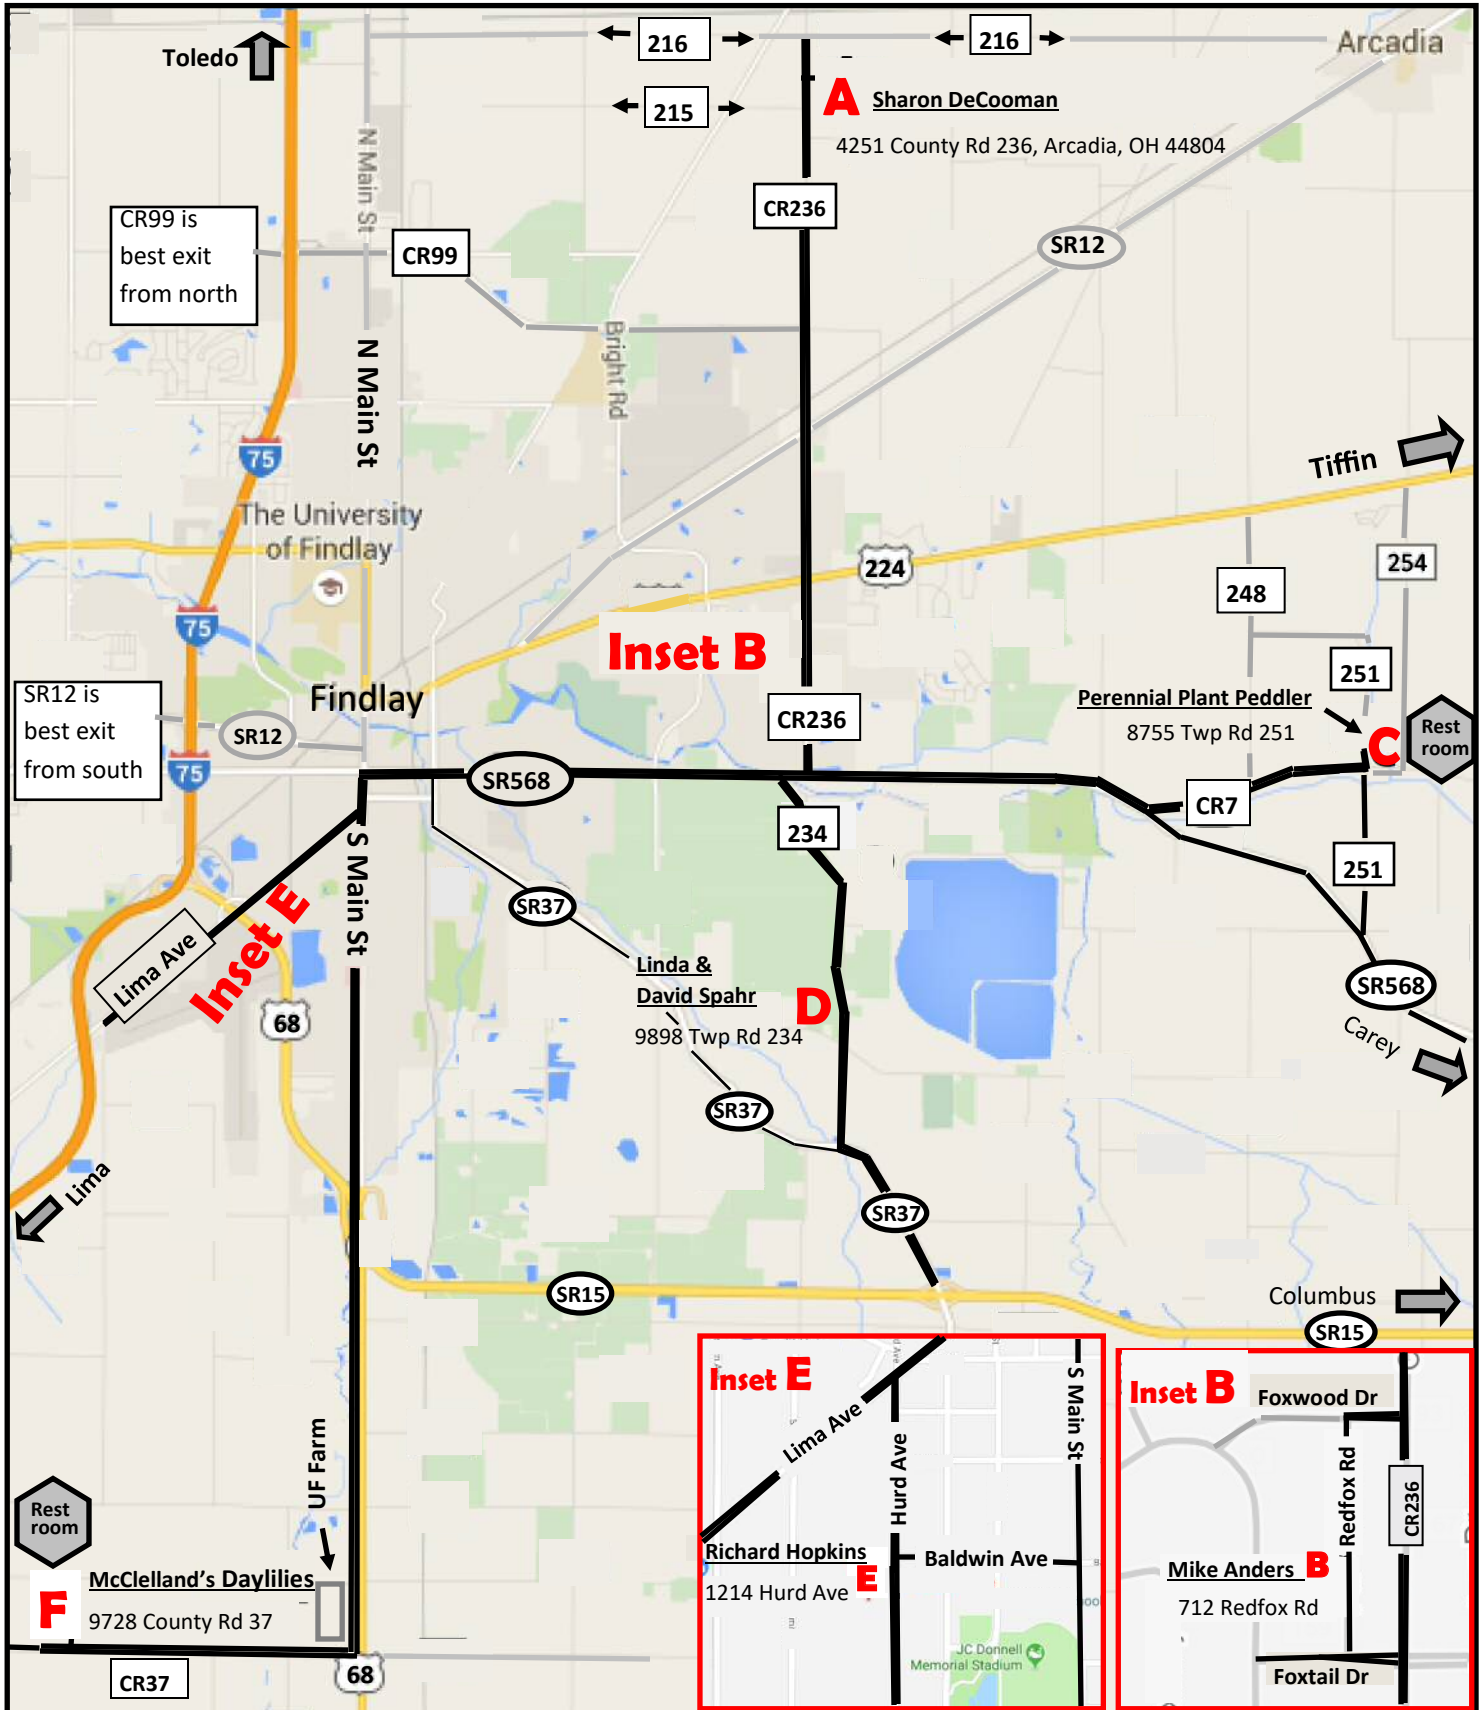

Flag City Daylily Tour

Findlay, Ohio

July 10 - 12, 2020

Unless otherwise noted,
all addresses are
Findlay, OH 45840.

Tour at your own risk